

If not yet done

Sculpture, 2012-2103

If not yet done is a joint project with Davide Cascio that consists of replaying and increasing previous exhibitions in a new form, depending on the opportunities.

Phase 1

Arcefalo, 2012, at Kunsthalle Laboratorio Lugano

Offset print et xylography

64 x 46 cm

Edition of 28 sheets in 4 ex.

Arcefalo is a series of twenty-eight prints that are supported by two images of acephalic busts on which are superimposed portraits taken from Jean Arp and Pablo Picasso. These are printed from a limited number of cut and superimposed shapes in order to increase the possibilities of composition.

Phase 2

2013, at Cabanon, student run space at the University of Lausanne

3 cardboard sculptures and 8 aluminum sculptures

Variable dimensions

Photo credit: Geoffrey Cottenceau

Three cardboard sculptures, designed using folding from a portrait from Acefalo. Aluminum sculptures created according to the same process alongside a selection of prints.

