

Préau

Public art, 2015

Project in collaboration with Fabienne Radi

In the courtyard of the Censuy College, Renens, Switzerland, words painted on the ground intersect to form a labyrinth on which students can wander while playing with language. Three families of words are represented: onomatopoeia, palindromes and repeated sound words.

Typography – Aurèle Sack

Architecture – Esposito & Javet

Photo credit – 7media & Prune Simon-Vermot

